Title II, Part A funds may be used to support...

- Substitutes to cover classes or stipends for teacher collaborative planning, curriculum, observations, and/or leading trainings.
- Teacher compensation for their increased leadership roles and responsibilities.
- Career opportunities and advancement initiatives for effective teachers that promote professional growth and emphasize multiple career paths (hybrid roles, leadership models, and decision-making groups).
- Supporting peer-led, evidence-based professional development in LEAs and schools.
- Recruiting and retaining talented and effective educators, including mentoring new educators.
- Participating in community of learning opportunities and other professional development opportunities with diverse stakeholder groups.

LEAs can...

⇒ Partner with organizations to provide leadership training and opportunities for school leaders to hone their craft and bring teams together to improve school structures.
⇒ Offer community of learning opportunities for school leaders to engage with their school teams to fully develop broad curriculum models.
⇒ Develop opportunities for principals and other school leaders to collaborate, problem-solve, and share best practices.

Non-Regulatory Guidance for Title II, Part A:

Building Systems of Support for Excellent Teaching and Leading
Title II, Part A funds may be used to support both traditional and non-traditional pathways through the development of new teacher, principal, or other school leader preparation academies, teacher and principal residencies and other alternative routes. The effective recruitment, selection, and hiring of the most promising educators. Establish, or improve school-based residency programs for teachers and school leaders. Reform efforts with the entities that oversee preparation standards and approval, certification, and tenure in order to ensure that:

- Teachers have the necessary subject-matter knowledge and teaching skills in the academic subjects that they teach to help students meet challenging State academic standards.
- Educators are encouraged to use Title II, Part A funds to establish and support high quality educator induction and mentorship programs that are evidence-based and are designed to improve classroom instruction and student learning and achievement and increase the retention of effective teachers, principals, or other school leaders (ESEA sections 2101(c)(4)(B)(vii)(III) and 2103(b)(3)(B)(iv)). Research shows that high-quality induction and mentoring programs can increase teacher retention as well as increase student achievement. Teacher retention is well-recognized as one of the most effective teacher-principals’ principles. Research shows that high-quality induction and mentoring programs can increase teacher retention as well as increase student achievement. Title II, Part A funds may be used to support a mentoring and induction program by providing early release time for mentoring, compensation for mentors, and evidence-based professional development.

Multiple Pathways to Teaching and Learning