

Early Learning and the Brain
Glendale Civic Center: April 17-18, 2018
Call for Exhibitors

Exhibitor space is limited to 10 exhibitors. Applications are accepted on a first come, first served basis and approved at the discretion of Arizona Department of Education. When the exhibit space has been filled, exhibitor(s) will be put on a waiting list should there be any openings after the registration deadline passed.

The Early learning and the Brain summit will explore the science of how we learn through latest research on ways to improve instruction, motivation and mindsets, design thinking, hands-on exploration, active learning, effective feedback and more. The Early Learning & the Brain Summit creates an opportunity for researchers, educators, administrators, and supporters to examine new information for the classroom and practice through: collaboration, communication, content, critical thinking, creative innovation, and confidence. Join us as we welcome Dr. Roberta Michnick Golinkoff (author of Becoming Brilliant: What Science Tells Us About Raising Successful Children), Erika Christakis (author of The Importance of Being Little: What Young Children Really Need From Grownups), and many more!
