

Arizona History and Social Science Standards Revision Working Group

Date and time of meeting: June 26 and 27, 2018 | 8:30 am – 3:30 pm

Scope of work: On June 26 & 27, 2018 working groups of diverse grade level content experts and community members reviewed the public feedback on the standards to determine which comments were actionable. Changes to the draft standards were made based off of the actionable public feedback comments. The draft in its entirety was then review for consistency and appropriate progression.

Work completed: During the meeting, the working group committees reviewed the public feedback that was received. They made the appropriate changes to the draft based on the actionable public feedback. The committee also reviewed the draft for consistency and appropriate progressions. A graphic for the K-8 storylines was added for clarity.

Artifact (s):

Artifact 1: Public Feedback 2018 as of 6/27/18
The document (artifact) is the actual working document from the History and Social Science working group committee. As the working groups discussed the feedback/comment they determined if the comment was actionable and made some notes on the artifact:

- Commented on how the actionable items were addressed.

Artifact 2: Draft of the History and Social Science Standards as of 6/29/18

- Parts of the draft that were removed to reflect actionable public feedback and technical review feedback are indicated with a ~~strikethrough~~.
- Additions or rewording of the draft standards to reflect actionable public feedback and technical review feedback are indicated in blue.

Plans for next meeting: The next working group meeting will review the draft for any formatting changes and vertical articulation progressions. This group will also begin to compile appendices and supporting documents for the draft.

