21ST CCLC GRANT PEER REVIEWERS

ABOUT US

The Arizona Department of Education is currently seeking qualified individuals with diverse expertise in a wide variety of education-related areas to participate as evaluators in a rigorous peer review process for the 21st-CCLC grants. This process is used to ensure qualified proposals are selected for funding.

Peer Reviewers will independently evaluate applications on-line during a two-week window. You must have computer and internet access and commit the time to read each of the proposals carefully, make objective and constructive comments and score fairly.

WHAT WE'RE LOOKING FOR

- experience and expertise with out-of-school or extended day programs or knowledge of research or practice on this topic
- experience and expertise with or knowledge of research and practice in designing effective academic, enrichment, youth development, and related services to children; implementing, or evaluating interventions for at-risk students from high poverty schools
- experience and expertise with working with communities to forge meaningful partnerships that foster commitment to improving the lives of youth and their families
- relevant experience and expertise in an education-related field
- experience and expertise with conducting evaluations of education programs or community programs for at-risk youth
- experience as a grant reviewer (preferably in education)

* Pursuant to Title IV, Part B of the ESSA, peer reviewers may not include any applicant, or representative of an applicant, that has or will be submitting a proposal in response to the current competition.
