- Resources, services, and supports for families/caregivers and their family members after graduation
- Early and intentional student/family engagement in the IEP process

Proposal Review Process

Proposals must identify the primary topical strand the session is intended to address. Sessions must incorporate strategies and interventions, involve active participation of the audience, and include adequate time for reflection and sharing. Your session description must be content-specific, complete, clearly written, and must accurately reflect the material to be presented to your audience. If your proposal is selected, the session description you submit will be used in the conference program, so the description should be no longer than 300 words. Please indicate whether your session is 75 or 90 minutes in length.

Please note: Arizona’s Transition Conference Planning Committee reserves the right to edit session titles and descriptions to allow for accuracy, consistency, and clarity in all conference materials.

Conference Registration Fee & Multiple Presenters

One presenter per session can be exempt from paying the conference registration fee. (If an assistant is required to support the presenter, the conference registration fee will be waived for this individual.) Registration fee payment will be required from each additional presenter.

Arizona’s Transition Conference Planning Committee will review all submissions based on the following criteria:

1. The degree to which the proposal clearly addresses one or more of the identified conference strands;
2. Clear identification of what the participants will know and take away as a result of their attendance at the session;
3. Relevance of session content to the intended audience(s);
4. The degree to which the proposal reflects evidence-based or promising practice; and
5. The degree to which the proposal has practical application and demonstrated results for the intended audience(s).
