Students with IEPs Wanted to Design Arizona's Annual Transition Conference Brochure Cover

Building Success: One Transition at a Time

Arizona's Annual Transition Conference Planning Committee is seeking original artwork created by students with IEPs for this year's conference brochure. Any student currently enrolled in an Arizona public education agency (PEA) or approved private school who is identified with a disability and is between the ages of 14 and 22 is eligible to submit an entry that illustrates the conference theme. The first-place winning entry will be used on the brochure cover. Other selected entries will be used throughout the conference brochure and acknowledged by the Arizona Department of Education, Exceptional Student Services (ADE/ESS). The theme, Building Success: One Transition at a Time, reflects the conference purpose of building on the latest information related to strategies, expectations, and opportunities for youth and young adults with disabilities to make meaningful and successful transitions to adulthood. The cover artist winner and his or her family will be offered scholarships to attend the conference, which will be held August 19-21, 2019 at the JW Marriott Desert Ridge in Phoenix, Arizona.
