

AZCSTAG Readiness Assessment

Thank you for the invitation to conduct the Arizona Comprehensive School Threat Assessment Training (AZCSTAG). Please complete the following survey to assist in understanding the needs at your site. The following is adapted from the AZCSTAG created using the Virginia Student Threat Assessment Guidelines (Cornell, D. 2018).

Name

Email Address

School/Agency

Which effective programs are on your site?

- Bullying Prevention Cognitive Behavior Therapy Family Therapy
 Conflict Resolution Life Skills Training Motivational Interviewing
 Multisystemic Therapy Parent skills training (ex. Active Parenting) Substance abuse resistance
 Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports Problem-solving/social competence
 Other:

Please complete the following pertaining to your site.

Your central administration supports the use of this threat assessment program.

Not Supportive 1 2 3 4 5 Very Supportive

Your school system is prepared to evaluate the seriousness of a student's threatening behavior and take calibrated action rather than use zero tolerance to apply automatic disciplinary consequences in all cases.

Strongly Disagree 1 2 3 4 5 Strongly Agree

Your threat assessment team includes the following (check all that apply):

- Administrator(s): principal, assistant principal, dean of students
 Mental Health Professionals: school psychologist, counselor, social worker
 Law enforcement representative: school resource officer, school security
 Other school staff: nurse, behavior specialist

- Yes No Your team can attend a 6-8 hour workshop.
Yes No Your school organization has a procedure for maintaining threat assessment case records.
Yes No Your school organization has a procedure for maintaining threat assessment case records.
Yes No After training, your school/agency will encourage staff to begin conducting assessments of student threats and developing interventions based on the seriousness of the threat.
Yes No After training, the basic ideas of threat assessment will be explained to the entire staff of each school.
Yes No After training, the need to report threats, ways to report threats, and the general approach of threat assessment will be explained to student and parents in each school.
Yes No At the end of the year, the school administration and team will review how the process is working in each school.