

CALLING ALL ARIZONA TEACHERS OF REFUGEES!

Earn 30 state-approved professional development hours through OELAS, while developing your knowledge and skills to best support the academic achievement and well-being of refugee students.

Reserve your spot now to be part of our upcoming online Refugee Educator Foundations of Practice learning community. The Refugee Educator Foundations program is generously underwritten by a family foundation so that educators like you can participate at no cost ($500 value). Don't miss your chance to be part of this transformative learning opportunity!

Join Us

The Center for Learning in Practice invites you to join cohort two of the Refugee Educator Foundations of Practice learning community. Become a member of a cohort comprised of 120 teachers from across the nation. Participate in a 12-week online course and offer feedback on our learning design, dialog with colleagues from various states, schools, grade levels, and content areas, and enjoy the support of a refugee educator facilitator/coach in the spring, summer, and fall terms of 2020.

Course Topics Include

- Understanding refugee resettlement and refugee educational experiences
- Culturally relevant, responsive, and sustaining pedagogies
- Social and emotional learning and trauma-informed practice
- Curriculum and assessment
- Learning and instructional design
- Advocacy and teacher leadership

As a Participant You Will

- Develop your capacities to build safe, inclusive, productive learning environments to support refugee student academic achievement and well-being
- Participate in a diverse community of practice sharing resources and cultivating sustainable professional learning networks
- Demonstrate your competencies through practice-based assessments, micro-credentialing, and, possibly, building of an e-portfolio (optional)

Program Design

This initiative has been developed using the Center for Learning in Practice's Sustainable Learning Framework. Facilitation and coaching will promote reflection, deep learning, and integration of theory, research, and practice. Diversity among participants will offer opportunities for critical learning in dialog and from a variety of perspectives.

Cohort #2 Timeline and Requirements

Course begins in January, 2020 and runs through April, 2020. Coaching and community discussion will continue through October, 2020. Expect to spend 2-4 hours online per week. There will be job-embedded assignments to complete with immediate, practical application. There will also be discussions to join, formative assessments, and opportunities to earn micro-credentials through competency-based assessments.
