

Arts for the Whole School.... for the Whole Child

Presenter: Robert Benson, Peoria Unified School District

The fine arts continue to provide a deep sense of satisfaction for parents, students, community, and staff. This session will provide a school wide view via many educational ideas such as quality instruction, school structure, active learning examples, hurdles, and data that will provide participants with a reason why the arts could be considered for an K-8 school wide model. The presentation is given by the administration at the Foothills Fine Arts Academy in the Peoria Unified School District.

Intended Audience: Teachers, School Administrators, Federal Grants Administrators, Governing Board Members, Curriculum and Instruction Leaders, Arts Education Leaders
