

Engaging Families to Support Students

Presenters: Cheyana Leiva 2018 Exemplary Award Winner and Kristina Leckliter, Deer Valley Unified School District

Participants will learn about the myriad of resources to support students and families. In addition, they will identify their needs and create an action plan to increase the resources available to their students and families.

Intended Audience: Teachers, School Administrators, Parent/Family Liaisons, Other District Level Employees