

Mindful Movement

Presenter: Keri Schoeff, ADE

Come learn how to assess your environment and learn positive activities that can support mindfulness in your school. This training gives classroom teachers and school leaders insight on how to implement mindful movement activities throughout their school to positively impact student behavior strategies and social & emotional literacy.

Intended Audience: Paraprofessionals, Teachers, School Administrators, Other District Level Employees