

ADE Effective Use of Technology Professional Development Offerings

Title	Description	Duration	Intended Audience
AI: Insights and Recommendations	In this workshop, educators will learn about Artificial Intelligence (AI) and explore guiding questions to consider regarding AI technology policy. Examples of AI tools for teaching, learning and assessment will be explored as well as recommendations to consider before implementation.	60-90 min.	K-12 school and district leaders K-12 teachers Federal Programs Directors
AI for School Leaders	In this workshop session, school leaders will explore Artificial Intelligence (AI) solutions to lighten their workload, learn best practices when interacting with AI, and discover how AI tools can help efficiently tackle their "to-do" lists.	60-75 min.	K-12 school and district leaders K-12 teachers Federal Program Directors
Teaching & Learning with AI	This session explores the transformative potential of artificial intelligence (AI) in education. Participants will engage with practical strategies for integrating AI tools into teaching and learning, while also considering data privacy and ethical implications. Attendees will discover how AI can enhance student engagement, support personalized learning, and foster innovation in educational practice.	60-75 min.	K-12 school and district leaders K-12 teachers Federal Program Directors
Blended Learning Strategies	In this workshop, educators will learn the basics of Blended Learning and strategies for implementing Blended Learning in their classrooms. We will look at different Blended Learning models, types of digital lessons, and tools to help you accomplish Blended Learning in your classroom.	60-75 min	K-12 school and district leaders K-12 teachers Federal Program Directors

ADE Effective Use of Technology Professional Development Offerings

Effective Use of Technology in Arts Classrooms	Title IV-A supports both the Effective Use of Technology and Well-rounded Education. In this session, educators will explore ways to enhance arts classrooms using technology tools that help engage students and enrich their educational experiences.	45-75 min.	K-12 arts teachers
Open Educational Resources	In this workshop educators will explore Open Educational Resources and how to use these tools in their classrooms. Educators will also learn how to create and share their own resources.	60-75 min.	K-12 school and district leaders K-12 teachers Federal Program Directors
Student Safety in the Age of the Internet and Devices	In this workshop, participants will explore research regarding students and smartphones, strategies for best practices regarding devices in the classroom, and recommendations for students including internet and device safety.	60-90 min.	Parents K-12 school and district leaders K-12 teachers Federal Program Directors
Using Technology to Connect with Families	Participants will learn strategies and tools for communicating with families, including ELL families.	60-75 min.	Parents K-12 school and district leaders K-12 teachers Federal Program Directors
Using Technology to Personalize Instruction for ALL Students	Are you ready to move beyond the “one size fits all” model of instruction? If so, then this session is for you! Participants will learn how to use technology, Blended Learning models, and data to personalize instruction, give students control over the pace, path, and place and take their learning to the next level.	60-90 min.	K-12 school and district leaders K-12 teachers Federal Programs Directors

Email TitleIV-A@azed.gov to schedule your next PD session.