

Work-Based Learning: Types of Work-Based Learning Models and Delivery Systems

Summer School Internship

Districts and schools may choose to provide summer school internships, and it is a local decision to do so. ADM requirements must be met. For College and Career Readiness Indicator points, the 120-hour requirements will apply. The Summer School Internship model will require the same steps and documentation as a school year internship.